

NOVA EMPLOYMENT EXPLAINS HOW SERVICES EXTEND BEYOND THE HIRING PROCESS

From Katoomba to Campbelltown, clubs around the country are receiving the benefits of partnering with NOVA Employment.

At last count, nearly 40 ClubsNSW venues employ 55 staff with a disability through NOVA in areas of food service, front of house, administration, maintenance, green keeping and transport.

Ben Kidson works in the main bar of Ramsgate RSL. HR Manager, Renee Healey, explains 'Ben's customer service skills are excellent. As well, he takes real pride in his work and he's a fantastic team player'.

Ashley Williams at Cronulla Sutherland Leagues Club, who works in the bistro received a fantastic review from HR Manager, Nieves Denoon, who stated, 'NOVA matches the skills of the candidates with the responsibilities of the role. Their services extend way beyond the hiring process.'

Both managers receive key benefits through utilising NOVA including partnering with NOVA's brand, efficient staff recruitment processes, onsite workplace support, understanding of regulations, incentives and opportunities for businesses employing people with a disability.
